Sunrise

As the sun rises over the horizon, a new day
burst brilliantly before our eyes. This morning star is as silent as a whisper . . . as glorious as the universe. Soon, as trivial minutes will combine, interwoven to form an experience, a passage of time, a day. This 'morning'
is a time to learn, to teach,
to be taught; a chance
to examine ourselves, to break away from "everyday happenings," and get to know our emotions.

Missy McDowell '80

SISTER SARAH

In appreciation for all her countless hours of hard work, understanding and devotion to the betterment of our school, we, the student body of Bishop Lynch, would like to thank you for your loyalty and love. In your honor we would like to dedicate the 1978-79 Veritas. May God bless you.

SISTER SARAH

Sister Sarah Naughton arrived at Bishop Lynch in August of 1973. During this short period of time, Sr. Sarah held a variety of offices. Along with her position as principal, obtained in 1977, Sister was appointed Asst. Principal of the Girls Division, Finance Manager, Head of Scheduling, and Head of the Senior Service Projects. In addition to her duties as teacher of religion and math, Sister also found time in her busy schedule to moderate the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders.

NINETEEN EIGHTY
THE CLASS OF A NEW DECADE

Junior spirit invades Lynch

Michelle dances through the halls

The junior class is known for its eloquent speakers

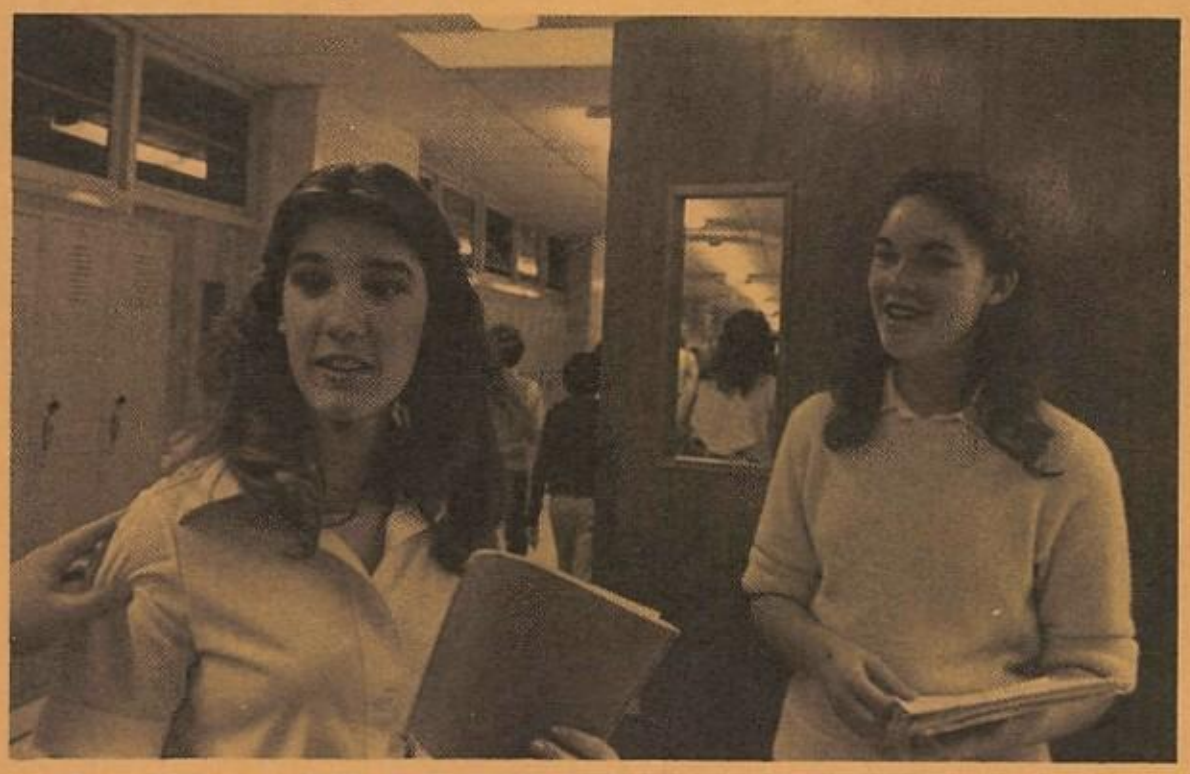
The "studious" junior class

Susan Roeman uses study hall to its full advantage

Raymond Henry, Thomas Rollison, and Carl Barnes concentrate on the game.

Ida Lopez enjoys herself during class

Juniors don't keep up with current events



Michelle Berens and Bonnie Gilmore take a break from the routine of study

Annette Prachyl proves that studying can be fun

Kara lends spiritual assistance

Juniors display their musical talents

Mary Kay Vanek gets ready to hang out the wash.

Sophomores always did have a problem in language.

Steven Champagne goofing around.

Mike Lutz contemplating the day.

Earl Smith passing the time.

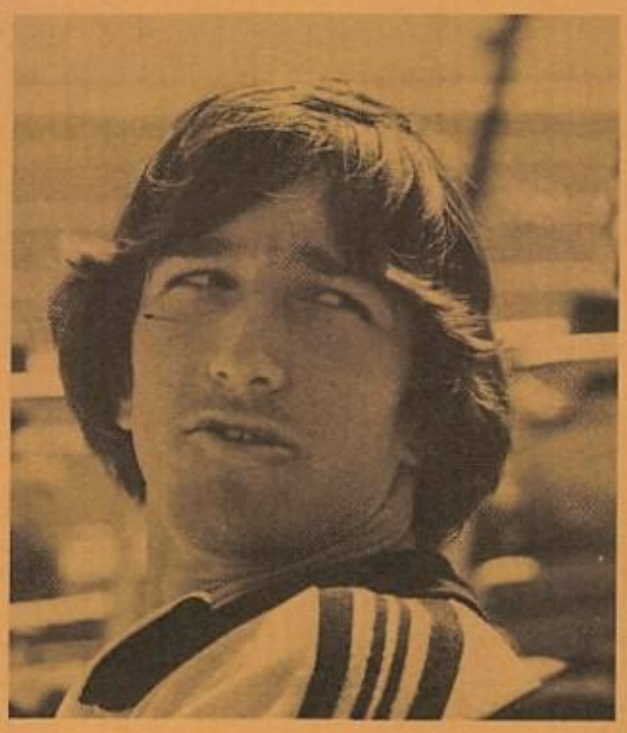
Kelly Hartnett seems to be interested in the problem.

SOPHOMORES

Theresa Romo working hard.

Sheilah Caton under pressure.

Mary Grimley telling it her way.



Eddie Long looking around.

Philip Goglia, Greg Groves, and Rose Marotta having a few laughs.

Ed Banks having fun.

Dee Shaferling all tangled up.

REMEMBER

Work before pleasure!

The new style!

Aren't I cute?

On our way to boredom.

A spittin' image of our brothers.

Can you believe it, we're studying!

Hey, big man!

Don't we have spirit?!

School is so much fun!

WHEN . . .

Patti Smith and Tina Bird hide their faces from the camera.

Tom Christ says, "Another day at B.L."

Aren't we cute in our dresses?

Don't you like our classy ties?

All smiles!

A side view of Joe Murphy (the best side)!

Lisa Dugan and Linda Martin anticipating the race.

Say, what's happening?

Hey, I'm cool!

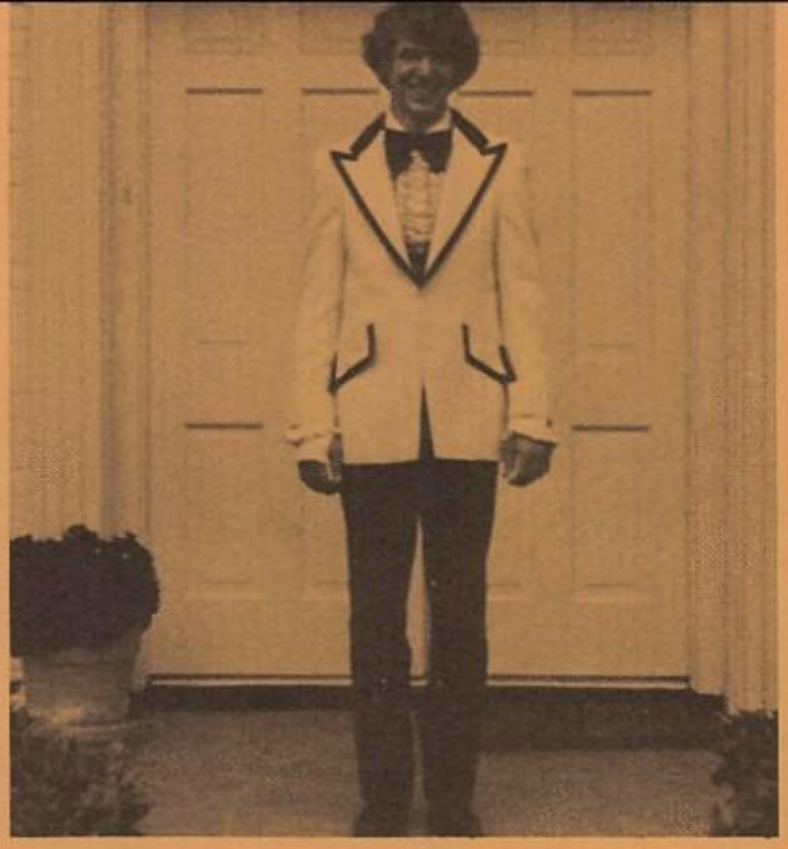
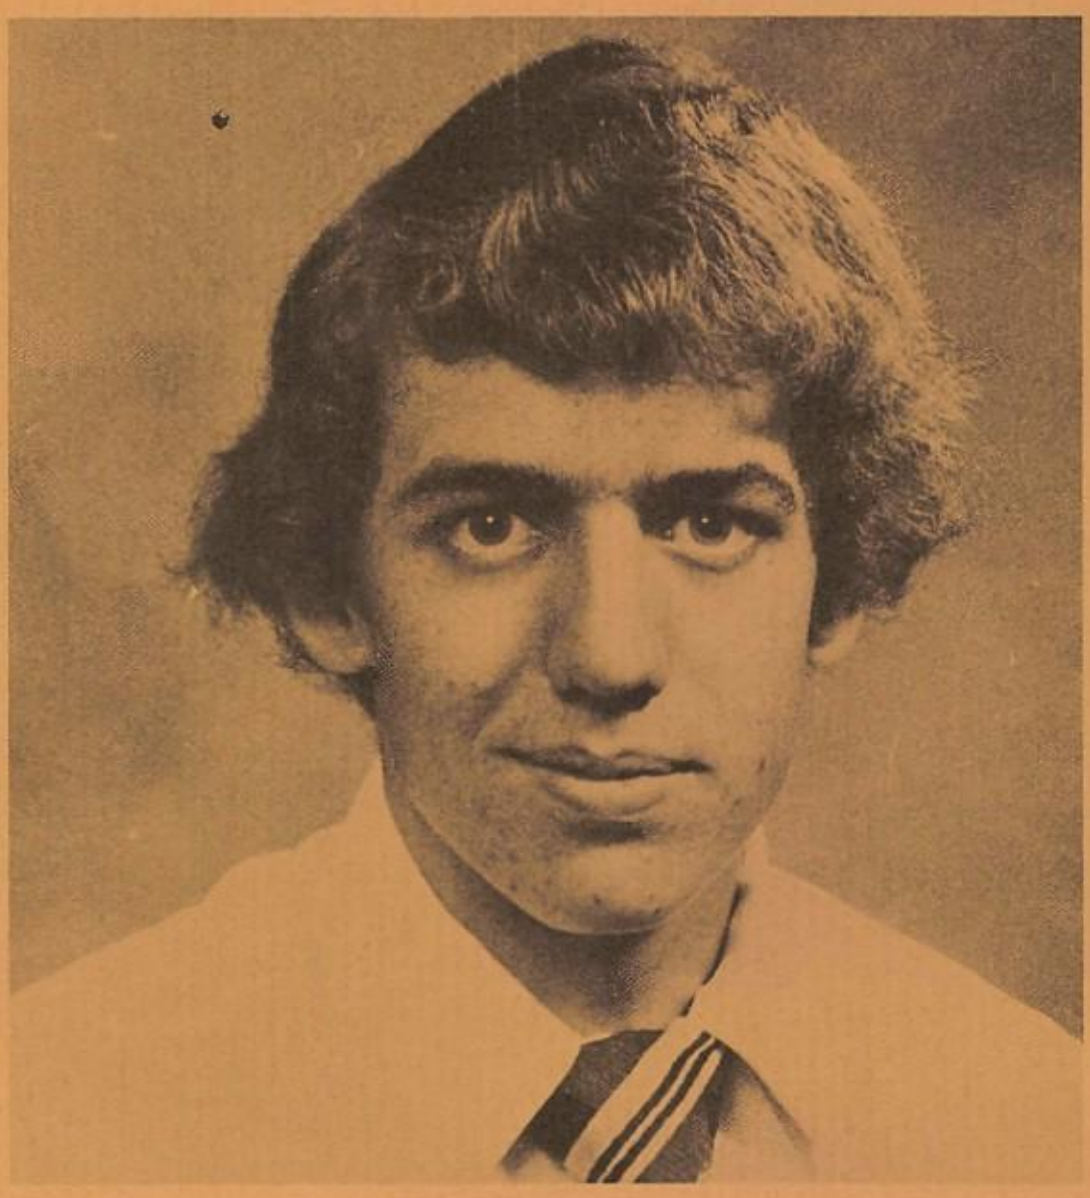
IN LOVING MEMORY OF JOHN R. BRUNER

June 22, 1960
July 7, 1978



May 6, 1978 saw John Bruner dressed up in a tux for Prom.

"The Bike" and John in early summer of '78.



Fall of John's Sophomore year.

The Class of 1979 and the staff of Veritas hereby dedicate this page as a memorial for John Raymond Bruner, our classmate and dear friend.

John attended Bishop Lynch for three years. In those years, he brought out a certain spark of vibrance, fire, and life in a lot of people. John relished life and lived it to the fullest. Though John was indeed a "wild and crazy guy," he generated a strong, dignified aire in and around everything he did.

With hindsight of John's all-too-brief life, we find this message, "Live to Love Life."

May we all grow stronger and more loving through John's shining example of how to live life and may God love him as we forever will.

State Champs Again

The 1978-79 Girls Varsity Basketball season ended with a state championship. All during the 7 long months of preparation, the girls kept their confidence and their victories going strong. Their impressive season record of 30 hard-earned wins and 5 disappointing losses gave them the necessary momentum to go into the state playoffs and destroy their opponents. They're true champions in every sense of the word, and we're proud of them. Way to go ladys.

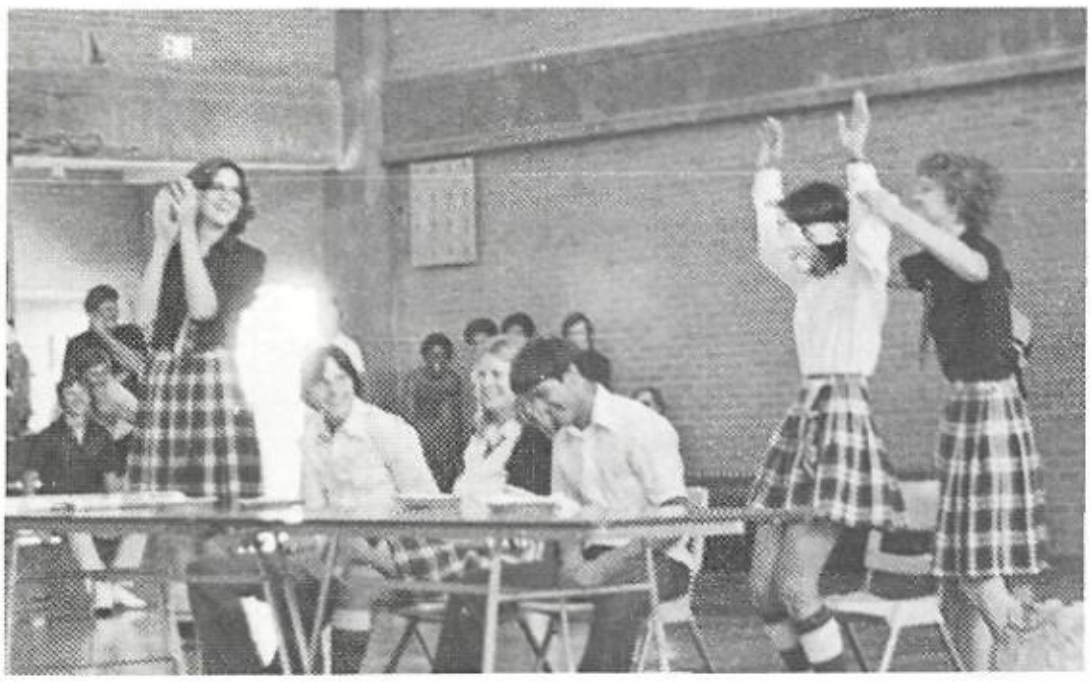
FRESHMAN INITIATION WEEK



Hands up Missy Robinson!

Injured Freshman.

The anguish seen in the face of Krissy McKeane!

Freshman prostrate themselves for their Big Brothers and Sisters!

Barrel Racing, a national pastime!

Dear Michele,

Whew!! We've been through a whole lot this summer, and I'm glad that after all this stuff we're friends again. I hope that we can always be friends, and I hope that we don't ever have to argue like we did this summer, and I don't want to have to ruin our friendship.

Stay sweet, Love always,

Patti

RETREATS, RETR

Reggie Stephens "relaxes" on retreat.

Which way did Sr. Selina go?

Throughout the 1978-79 school year Bishop Lynch students participated in a series of retreats. These retreats were coordinated by Sr. Selina, who was assisted by Sr. Mary Margaret, in an effort to allow the students the opportunity for personal growth, spiritual enrichment and social consciousness. There were times of prayer and relaxation, a day off from the hassles of everyday life.

The freshman class sponsored "Community Day" which consisted of a movie, discussions, mass and a dinner disco dance. The purpose of this "Community Day", according to Sr. Selina, was to increase the spirit of the class of '82 by letting the students get to know each other.

The sophomores spent a day at Whispering Cedars. This retreat took a team approach and posed the question, "Who are we, how do we relate to each other, and what is our present relationship with God?"

Who said retreats are no fun?

We've heard of class unity but this is ridiculous!

EATS, RETREATS

The teaching team consisted of Ms. Vachuta, Mrs. Gudelsky, Mr. Flood, Mr. Wallis, Mr. Brotherman and Fr. Marrin.

The juniors spent a rainy night at Athens Christian Youth Foundation under the direction of Sr. Selina and Father Everitt. The "Class of 80" discussed their interrelationships and gained valuable insights as to the nature of these relationships. The high-point of the trip was the aquatic facilities, which featured the charter meetings of the midnight swim team.

Joe Murphy finds his "niche"!

The seniors spent two nights at either Bridgeport (under the direction of Fred Martinez) or Lake Sharon (under the direction of Father Bill Stanaway). These nights and days were a highlight of the Senior year and provided the class with many fond memories, as well as a positive attitude toward themselves and others.

Why is everyone turning their back on me?

Mr. Brotherman and Father Everet lead the Eucharist celebration.

We Are The Stars In Tomorrow's

Queen Diane Arata & King John Edwards

The 1979 Jr.-Sr. Prom was held at the Fairmont Hotel in the Gold Room on May 12. Music was provided by Joe City Band from 8:00 to 1:00. Nominated to the Prom Court were Diane Arata, Debbie Heitmeyer, Rosemary LoCascio, Libby McKean, Leah Robinson, Terry Christ, John Edwards, Trey Llewellyn, Chuck Paradowski, and Steve Wilson. The theme, "We are the Stars ready to shine in tomorrows universe" was conveyed through decorations of stars, flowers, and an ice sculpture. One hundred and one couples attended the dance, which was then followed by a party at Coo-koo's Nest.
